

Asking, Believing, Rejoicing

Compiled by Dan Augsburger

1 Introductory Thoughts

2 “Claim the promised blessing!”

3 Eph. 3: 20 “...able to do exceedingly abundantly....”

4 “Let our faith take hold of the promised blessing, and claim it as ours.” Early
5 Writings, 72

6

7 The Possibilities of Answered Prayer

8 Luke 1: 37 “With God, nothing is impossible.”

9 “Prayer is a heaven-ordained means of success. Appeals, petitions, entreaties, 10 between man and man, move men and act a part in controlling the affairs of 11 nations. But prayer moves heaven.” In Heavenly Places, 75

12 “The people of God have accustomed themselves to think that they must rely 13 upon their own effort, that little help is to be received from heaven; and the 14 result is that they have little light to communicate to other souls who are dying 15 in error and darkness. The church has long been contented with little of the 16 blessing of God; they have not felt the need of reaching up to the exalted 17 privileges purchased for them at infinite cost.... The power of God awaits their 18 demand and reception.” Testimony to Ministers, 175

19 “The church may be composed of those who are poor and uneducated; but if 20 they have learned of Christ the science of prayer, the church will have power 21 to move the arm of Omnipotence.” Signs of the Times, September 11, 1893.
22 Par. 4

24 The Certainty of Answers

25 Mark 11: 24 “...believe that you have received them, and you will have 26 them.”

27 “He makes it plain that our asking must be according to God's will; we must 28 ask for the things that He has promised, and whatever we receive must be 29 used in doing His will. The conditions met, the promise is unequivocal.”
30 Education, 257, 258

31 “If (we) have complied with the conditions upon which these promises are 32 based, God's word is pledged that He will do for (us) more than (we) ask.”
33 Morning Talks, November 1883, p. 14.

34

35 Effectual, Fervent Prayer

36 James 5:16 “Confess ... and pray.... The effectual fervent prayer of a 37 righteous man availeth much.”

38

39

The Pathway to Answered Prayer

40 1. Ask! Ask Specifically!

41 Matt. 7:7-8 “Ask and it shall be given....”

42 “It is part of God's great plan to grant us, in answer to the prayer of faith, that 43 which He would not bestow did we not thus ask.” Great Controversy, 525

44

45 2. Ask In Jesus' Name

46 John 16: 23,24 “... whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give 47 you.”

48 “Christ has opened the way for us to approach God. He says, 'Make use of My 49 name. It will be your passport to the heart of My Father and to all the riches of 50 His grace.’” Signs of the Times, June 18, 1902

51 “He explained that the secret of their success would be in asking for strength
52 and grace in His name. He would be present before the Father to make request
53 for them. The prayer of the humble (petitioner) He presents as His own desire 54 in that soul's behalf.” Desire of Ages, 667.

55

56 3. Ask According To God's Will

57 1 John 5:14-15 “Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we 58 ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He 59 hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have 60 asked of Him.”

61 “Christ says, "What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye 62 receive them, and ye shall have them." Mark 11:24. He makes it plain that our 63 asking must be according to God's will; we must ask for the things that He has 64 promised, and whatever we receive must be used in doing His will. The 65 conditions met, the promise is unequivocal.” Education, 257.7

66 “Be not discouraged if your prayers do not seem to obtain an immediate 67 answer. The Lord sees that prayer is often mixed with earthliness. Men pray
68 for that which will gratify their selfish desires, and the Lord does not fulfill 69 their requests in the way which they expect. He takes them through tests and 70 trials, he brings them through humiliations, until they see more clearly what 71 their necessities are. He does not give to men those things which will gratify a 72 debased appetite, and which will prove an injury to the human agent, and 73 make him a dishonor to God. He does not give men that which will gratify 74 their ambition, and work simply for self-exaltation. When we come to God, 75 we must be submissive and contrite of heart, subordinating everything to his 76 sacred will.” Review and Herald, November 19, 1895 par. 9

77

78 4. Ask Boldly

79 Heb. 4: 16 “Let us therefore come boldly”

80 “If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and 81 it shall be done unto you.” When you pray, present this promise. It is our 82 privilege to come to Him with holy boldness. As in sincerity we ask Him to let 83 His light shine upon us, He will hear and answer us.” Child Guidance, 499

84

85 5. Ask With Faith—Expectantly

86 Mark 9: 23 “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.”

87 Matt. 9:29 “Then touched He their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it 88 unto you.”

89 “Prayer is the key that unlocks the storehouse of heaven. The churches have 90 been losing their power. We must have faith in God. We must have a firmer
91 dependence on Him who is the Owner of the universe. The cause of God 92 needs consecrated workers, and it needs money. What shall we do? Pray in 93 faith, believing that as we advance, the means and the workers will come. Let 94 us lay the whole situation before God, because He alone can supply that which 95 we must have in order to enter new fields. He says, Advance, and we are not 96 to wait till the money is in sight. There is to be no failure on our part.”

97 Manuscript Releases, vol. 18, 338.4

98 “God desires us to receive great blessings. His promises are so clearly stated 99 that there is no cause for uncertainty. He desires us to take Him at His word.
100 At times we shall be in great perplexity and not know just what to do. But at 101 such times it is our privilege to take our Bibles, and read the messages He has 102 given us; and then get down on our knees, and ask Him to help us. Over and 103 over again He has given evidence that He is a prayer-hearing and prayer-
104 answering God. He fulfills His promises in far greater measure than we expect
105 to receive help.” The Paulson Collection, 174

106 “There can be no true prayer without true faith. Without faith it is impossible 107 to please God. Prayer and faith are the arms by which the soul hangs upon the 108 neck of infinite love and grasps the hand of infinite power.” Letter 301, 109 1904.10

110

111 6. Obey

112 1 John 3:22 “...because we keep His commandments....”

113 “True faith rests on the promises contained in the Word of God, and those 114 only who obey that Word can claim its glorious promises. “If ye abide in Me,
115 and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done
116 unto you.” John 15:7. Early Writings, 72.2

118 7. Continue Praying

119 Luke 11:1-5 “Because of his persistence....”

120 1 Thess. 5:17 “Pray without ceasing.”

121

122 Examples of Persevering Prayer

123 Jacob (Gen. 32:24-26)

124 Hannah (1 Sam. 1:11)

125 Elijah (1 Kings 18:42,43)

126 Joseph (Gen. 45:7,8)

127 Israel (Ex. 2:23,24)

128 Daniel (Daniel 10:12)

129 The Friend at Midnight (Luke 11:5-9)

130 Paul (2 Cor. 12:7)

131 “Jacob prevailed because he was persevering and determined. His victory is 132 an evidence of the power of importunate prayer. All who will lay hold of 133 God’s promises as he did, and be as earnest and persevering as he was, will 134 succeed as he succeeded. Those who are unwilling to deny self, to agonize
135 before God, to pray long and earnestly for his blessing, will not obtain it.
136 Wrestling with God—how few know what it is! How few have ever had their 137 souls drawn out after God with intensity of desire until every power is on the 138 stretch. When waves of despair which no language can express sweep over the 139 suppliant, how few cling with unyielding faith to the promises of God.” Spirit
140 of Prophecy, vol. 4, 438.2

141 “The servant watched while Elijah prayed. Six times he returned from the 142 watch, saying, There is nothing, no cloud, no sign of rain. But the prophet did 143 not give up in discouragement. He kept reviewing his life, to see where he had 144 failed to honor God, he confessed his sins, and thus continued to afflict his 145 soul before God, while watching for a token that his prayer was answered. As 146 he searched his heart, he seemed to be less and less, both in his own 147 estimation and in the sight of God. It seemed to him that he was nothing, and 148 that God was everything; and when he reached the point of renouncing self, 149 while he clung to the Saviour as his only strength and righteousness, the 150 answer came. The servant appeared, and said, “Behold, there ariseth a little 151 cloud out of the sea, like a man’s hand” Review and Herald, May 26, 1891,
152 par. 8

153 “Special mercies are often withheld for a time, that we may more earnestly 154 supplicate the throne of grace. We must stay ourselves upon God, and not 155 measure the time by our own finite fancies. Our impulses must not rule over 156 us, but we must rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him, nor let our 157 sunshine turn to darkness, our faith to distrust.” Present Truth, January 30,
158 1890 par. 17

160 8. Ask With Thanksgiving

161 Php. 4: 4 “Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.”

162 Php. 4: 6,7 “...but in everything by prayer and supplication, with 163 thanksgiving....”

164 Eph. 5:20 “...giving thanks always for all things to God....”

165 “We do not pray any too much, but we are too sparing of giving thanks. If the 166 loving kindness of God called forth more thanksgiving and praise, we would 167 have far more power in prayer. We would abound more and more in the love 168 of God and have more bestowed to praise Him for. You who complain that 169 God does not hear your prayers, change your present order and mingle praise

170 with your petitions. When you consider His goodness and mercies you will 171 find that He will consider your wants.” Testimonies vol. 5, 317.

172 “When difficulties and trials surround us, we should flee to God, and 173 confidently expect help from Him who is mighty to save and strong to deliver.
174 We must ask for God's blessing if we would receive it. Prayer is a duty and a
175 necessity; but do we not neglect praise? Should we not oftener render 176 thanksgiving to the Giver of all our blessings? We need to cultivate gratitude.
177 We should frequently contemplate and recount the mercies of God, and laud 178 and glorify His holy name, even when we are passing through sorrow and 179 affliction. . . .” Selected Messages, vol. 2, 268.

180 “To praise God in fulness and sincerity of heart is as much a duty as is prayer.
181 We are to show to the world and to all the heavenly intelligences that we 182 appreciate the wonderful love of God . . . , and that we are expecting larger and 183 yet larger blessings from His infinite fulness. . . . After a special outpouring of 184 the Holy Spirit, our joy in the Lord and our efficiency in His service would be 185 greatly increased by recounting His goodness and His wonderful works in 186 behalf of His children. These exercises drive back the power of Satan. They 187 expel the spirit of murmuring and complaint, and the tempter loses ground. ...
188 No more effective means can be employed for winning souls to Christ.”
189 Christ's Object Lessons, 299, 300

190

191 9. Recognize His Answer

192 Rom. 8:28 “And we know that all things work together for good to those who 193 love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.”

194 “Christ desires nothing so much as to redeem His heritage from the dominion 195 of Satan. But before we are delivered from Satan's power without, we must be 196 delivered from his power within. The Lord permits trials in order that we may 197 be cleansed from earthliness, from selfishness, from harsh, unchristlike traits
198 of character. He suffers the deep waters of affliction to go over our souls in 199 order that we may know Him and Jesus Christ whom He has sent, in order that 200 we may have deep heart longings to be cleansed from defilement, and may 201 come forth from the trial purer, holier, happier. Often we enter the furnace of 202 trial with our souls darkened with selfishness; but if patient under the crucial 203 test, we shall come forth reflecting the divine character. When His purpose in 204 the affliction is accomplished, "He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the 205 light, and thy judgment as the noonday." Psalm 37:6. There is no danger that 206 the Lord will neglect the prayers of His people. The danger is that in 207 temptation and trial they will become discouraged, and fail to persevere in 208 prayer. Christ Object Lessons, 174.3; 175.1

209 “God's work of refining and purifying must go on until His servants are so 210 humbled, so dead to self, that, when called into active service, their eye will 211 be single to His glory. He will then accept their efforts; they will not move
212 rashly, from impulse; they will not rush on and imperil the Lord's cause, being 213 slaves to temptations and passions and followers of their own carnal minds set 214 on fire by Satan. Oh, how fearfully is the cause of God marred by man's 215 perverse will and unsubdued temper! How much suffering he brings upon 216 himself by following his own headstrong passions! God brings men over the

217 ground again and again, increasing the pressure until perfect humility and a
218 transformation of character bring them into harmony with Christ and the spirit
219 of heaven, and they are victors over themselves. “ Testimonies, vol. 4, 86.2

220

221 What Hinders Answers?

222 Isa. 1:15-17 “I will not hear....”

223 Isa. 58:3 “Why have we fasted....”

224

225 Hindering Factors of the Past and Present

226 1. Cherished and Unconfessed Sin

227 Isa. 59:1,2 “Your iniquities have separated you....”

228 Ps. 66:18 “If I regard iniquity....”

229 “If we regard iniquity in our hearts, if we cling to any known sin, the Lord 230 will not hear us; but the prayer of the penitent, contrite soul is always 231 accepted. When all known wrongs are righted, we may believe that God will 232 answer our petitions.” Steps to Christ, 95

233 “Many think they have not time to pray, or that it would be useless to pray if 234 they had time. They indulge themselves in the gratification of unholy desires.
235 They cherish unchristlike traits of character, and the least crossing of their will 236 arouses their combativeness and upsets their temper. While they are thus 237 unemptied of self, and unwilling to renounce their evil way, they cannot 238 expect to receive answers to their prayers; for evil tempers and corrupt 239 indulgences will make prayer of none effect. The psalmist says, 'If I regard 240 iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.’” Bible Echo, February 15,
241 1893 par. 7

242

243 2. Unfinished business from the past

244 2 Sam. 21:1,14 “...it is because of Saul and his bloodthirsty house....”

245 “...before engaging in prayer there should be the closest self-examination to 246 discover if there are not sins which need to be repented of, confessed, and 247 forsaken. Deep humility of soul before God is necessary, and firm, humble 248 reliance upon the merits of the blood of Christ alone. Fasting and prayer will 249 accomplish nothing while the heart is estranged from God by a wrong course
250 of action.” Testimonies, vol. 2, 145.1

251

252 3. Oppression and Breaking the Sabbath

253 Isa. 1:15-17 “Your hands are full of blood....”

254 Isa. 58:3 “find pleasure and exploit....”

255 Isa. 58:6,7 “Loose the bonds of wickedness....”

256 Isa. 58:13 “If you turn your foot from the Sabbath....”

257 Isa. 58:8 “Then your light shall break forth....”

258

259 4. Ungodly Priorities
260 Hag. 1:2-11 "...to dwell in your paneled houses and this temple...."
261 Hag. 2:4 "Be strong...."
262
263 5. Oppression and Refusing to Listen
264 Zech. 7:8-13 "Do not oppress.... They called and I would not listen...."
265 Zech. 8:15, 20-22 "I am determined to do good...."
266
267 6. Defiled Sacrifices, Relational Fractures and Robbing God
268 Mal. 1:6b-8 "You offer defiled food on My altar...."
269 Mal. 2:13-14 "...witness between you and the wife of your youth...."
270 Mal. 3:7-10 "Will a man rob God?"
271 Mal. 3:10-11, 16-18 "...pour out such a blessing...."
272
273 7. Unresolved Differences/Lack of Love
274 Matt. 5: 23,24 "...go your way... then come and offer your gift."
275 Matt. 5:43-44 "Love your enemies...."
276 Mark 11: 25-26 "If you do not forgive, neither will your Father...."
277 1 Pet. 3:7 "that your prayers may not be hindered."
278 John 17:21 "...that they also may be one in Us...."
279 "One great reason why our brethren and sisters have no more confidence 280 toward God in prayer, is, that nearly all neglect to follow the words of Jesus in 281 preserving harmony between brethren. They allow various wrongs to exist 282 with members of the church, which create bitter envy and strife; and while 283 these differences exist, God neither hears nor answers their prayers," 284 Review and Herald, April 15, 1880.
285 "When the laborers have an abiding Christ in their own souls, when all 286 selfishness is dead, when there is no rivalry, no strife for the supremacy, when 287 oneness exists, when they sanctify themselves, so that love for one another is 288 seen and felt, then the showers of the grace of the Holy Spirit will just as 289 surely come upon them as that God's promise will never fail in one jot or 290 tittle. But when the work of others is discounted, that the workers may show 291 their own superiority, they prove that their own work does not bear the 292 signature it should. God cannot bless them." Ms. 24, 1896, p. 4, Manuscript
293 Releases, vol. 1 385.3
294 "In union there is strength; in disunion there is only weakness. We should 295 work most diligently to answer the prayer of Christ that his disciples might be 296 one, as he is one with the Father. If we are united to Christ, the formation of a 297 church will be a benefit to all its members; for by entering into this church
298 union, we pledge ourselves to help one another. The Holy Spirit does not lead 299 us into this to be a mutual admiration society, but to put forth all the powers of 300 our being to help one another, in sympathy, in love, to be more like Jesus.”

301 Review and Herald, October 6, 1891 par. 5}

302

303 Prevaling Remedies

304 1. Secret Prayer

305 Matt. 6:6 “...when you have shut your door....”

306 “When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before Him, the 307 silence of the soul makes more distinct the voice of God. He bids us, 'Be still, 308 and know that I am God.' Ps. 46:10. Here alone can true rest be found. And 309 this is the effectual preparation for all who labor for God. Amid the hurrying 310 throng, and the strain of life's intense activities, the soul that is thus refreshed 311 will be surrounded with an atmosphere of light and peace. The life will 312 breathe out fragrance, and will reveal a divine power that will reach men's 313 hearts.” Desire of Ages, 363

314 “Many, even in their seasons of devotion, fail of receiving the blessing of real 315 communion with God. They are in too great haste. With hurried steps they 316 press through the circle of Christ's loving presence, pausing perhaps a moment 317 within the sacred precincts, but not waiting for counsel. They have no time to 318 remain with the divine Teacher. With their burdens they return to their work.”
319 Maranatha, 125

320 “Do not neglect secret prayer, for it is the soul of religion. With earnest, 321 fervent prayer, plead for purity of soul. Plead as earnestly, as eagerly, as you 322 would for your mortal life, were it at stake. Remain before God until 323 unutterable longings are begotten within you for salvation, and the sweet
324 evidence is obtained of pardoned sin.” Messages to Young People, 268.2

325 “Nothing will give such clear views of self as secret prayer. He who seeth in 326 secret and knoweth all things, will enlighten your understanding and answer
327 your petitions. Plain, simple duties that must not be neglected will open before 328 you.” Testimonies for the Church, vol. 5, 163

329

330 2. United Prayer

331 Matt. 18:20 “For where two or three are gathered....”

332 “The Lord has promised that where two or three are met together in His name, 333 there will He be in the midst. Those who meet together for prayer will receive 334 an unction from the Holy One. There is great need of secret prayer, but there
335 is also need that several Christians meet together and unite with earnestness
336 their petitions to God.” Heavenly Places, 91.2

337 “I remember in Battle Creek when there were those who felt the burden for 338 the unconverted, and those who were in darkness and saw no light; then 339 prayer meetings were appointed that they might make the strength of God
340 their strength. In every case the heavenly intelligences worked with these 341 efforts, and souls were saved.” Maranatha, 38

342 “The promise is made on condition that the united prayers of the church are 343 offered, and in answer to these prayers there may be expected a power greater 344 than that which comes in answer to private prayer. The power given will be

345 proportionate to the unity of the members and their love for God and for one
346 another.” Letter 32, 1903, p. 5

347 “Let every one who give of his means, also send up his prayers daily that it 348 may bring souls to the foot of the cross. And in every church, once a week at 349 least, let there be a season set apart for praying for this work. Let all be united, 350 not mingling in their petitions other wants, such as blessings for the sick and 351 needy, but having a specific object for their faith and entreaties. Brethren, 352 move high heaven by your prayers for God to work with the efforts of his 353 servants. The Lord has agencies which he will put in operation in answer to 354 the importunate prayers of faith. He will fulfill his word, "Lo, I am with you 355 always, even unto the end of the world." Review and Herald, October 12, 1886
356 par. 14

357

358 3. Intercessory Prayer

359 Isa. 59: 16 “... and wondered that there was no intercessor....”

360 Isa. 62: 6 “...ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence.”

361 “Every soul that refuses to give himself to God is under the control of another 362 power. He is not his own. He may talk of freedom, but he is in the most abject 363 slavery. He is not allowed to see the beauty of truth, for his mind is under the 364 control of Satan. While he flatters himself that he is following the dictates of 365 his own judgment, he obeys the will of the prince of darkness. Christ came to 366 free the shackles of sin-slavery from the soul. 'If the Son therefore shall make 367 you free, you shall be free indeed.’” Desire of Ages, 466.

368 “I have been shown angels of God are ready to impart grace and power to 369 those who feel their need of divine strength. But these heavenly messengers 370 will not bestow blessings unless solicited. They have waited for the cry from 371 souls hungering and thirsting for the blessing of God; often have they waited
372 in vain. There were, indeed, casual prayers, but not the earnest supplication
373 from humble, contrite hearts....” Our High Calling, 129

374 “A working church in travail for souls will be a praying church, a believing 375 church, and a receiving church. A church whose members are found upon 376 their knees before God, supplicating His mercy, seeking Him daily, is a 377 church that is feeding upon the bread of life, and drinking of the waters of life.
378 The promise, “Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My name, He will give it
379 you,” will be verified to them.” Testimony to Ministers, 205.1

380 “The most successful way to reach men is through divine power. We may 381 pray—we are invited to pray, commanded to pray—and He who has told us to 382 pray will hear our petitions and will work for us with divine power. He will 383 make our path all luminous by His divine light. The daily suppliant, if he have 384 faith, will be like a tree planted by the river of water; his leaf will be always 385 green, and he will bear an abundance of fruit.” Letter 37, 1878.8

386 We need burden-bearers in every church—fathers and mothers who have a 387 burden of prayer for their children, who will not cease their importunate
388 entreaties until help and grace and salvation come to their children. God lives
389 and reigns. He will hear the humble prayers coming from contrite hearts.
390 What we need in every church is more praying, more believing, less talking

391 doubts, less grumbling, less murmuring, and a great deal more hope, courage, 392 and perseverance. May God give us these things for we are helpless without 393 them.” Letter 44, 1875.2

394

395 4. Prayers for Revival

396 Zech. 10:1 “Ask the Lord for rain in the time of the latter rain.”

397 Isa. 44:3 “I will pour water on him who is thirsty....”

398 “A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all
399 our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort
400 to obtain the blessing of the Lord, not because God is not willing to bestow 401 His blessing upon us, but because we are unprepared to receive it. Our 402 heavenly Father is more willing to give His Holy Spirit to them that ask Him, 403 than are earthly parents to give good gifts to their children. But it is our work, 404 by confession, humiliation, repentance, and earnest prayer, to fulfill the 405 conditions upon which God has promised to grant us His blessing. A revival 406 need be expected only in answer to prayer.” Selected Messages, vol. 1, 121.

407 “A revival need be expected only in answer to prayer. When churches are 408 revived, it is because some individual seeks earnestly for the blessing of God.
409 He hungers and thirsts after God, and asks in faith, and receives accordingly.
410 He goes to work in earnest, feeling his great dependence upon the Lord, and 411 souls are aroused to seek for a like blessing, and a season of refreshing falls 412 upon the hearts of men.” Home Missionary, November 1, 1890.

413 "What would become of the churches if there were no special seasons when 414 the Spirit of Christ was sought for with earnestness and fervor, and the cold 415 hearts were warmed by the rays of divine light? God wants to be inquired of 416 by his people, before he pours out his Holy Spirit upon the church. How 417 earnestly should every member pray and labor, and labor and pray for the 418 deep movings of Spirit of God!" Review and Herald June 26, 1888, par. 8

419 “A sleepy, Christless church, quarreling and surmising evil, will have no 420 reward, and need look for no revival, unless its members repent, and do the 421 first works.” Review and Herald, June 26, 1888 Par. 9

422

423 5. Prayers for Healing

424 James 5: 13-16 “Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray.”

425 I Cor. 11: 28-30 "For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and 426 many sleep."

427 “His disciples in this time are to pray for the sick as verily as His disciples of 428 old prayed. And recoveries will follow, for “the prayer of faith shall save the 429 sick.” James 5:15. We need the Holy Spirit's power, the calm assurance of 430 faith that can claim God's promises.” Review and Herald, June 9, 1904.

431 “When you neglect to pray for the sick, you deprive them of great blessings;
432 for angels of God wait to minister to these souls in response to your 433 petitions....” Medical Ministry,” 195

434 “It has often been my privilege to pray with the sick. We should do this much 435 more often than we do. If more prayer were offered in our sanitariums for the 436 healing of the sick, the mighty power of the Healer would be seen. Many more 437 would be strengthened and blessed, and many more acute sicknesses would be 438 healed.” Selected Messages, vol. 3, 295.

439 “It is labor lost to teach people to look to God as a healer of their infirmities, 440 unless they are taught also to lay aside unhealthful practices. In order to 441 receive His blessing in answer to prayer, they must cease to do evil and learn 442 to do well.” Ministry of Healing, 226.

443

444 6. Prayers Combined with Fasting

445 Mark 9:29 “... This kind can come out by nothing except by prayer and 446 fasting.”

447 “When Peter also was imprisoned, the entire church engaged in fasting and 448 prayer.” Acts of the Apostles, 144.

449 “For certain things fasting and prayer are recommended and appropriate. In 450 the hand of God they are a means of cleansing the heart and promoting a 451 receptive frame of mind. We obtain answers to our prayers because we 452 humble our souls before God.” Manuscript Releases, vol. 20, 105.

453 “The spirit of true fasting and prayer is the spirit which yields mind, heart, and 454 will to God.” Counsels on Diet and Foods, 189.

455 “Our brethren would receive a blessing in dispensing with or deferring one 456 meal of the day, if necessary, in order that an hour or more might be devoted 457 to testimony meeting. We used often to make the Sabbath a day of fasting and 458 prayer, and we were greatly blessed in our worship.” Manuscript Releases, 459 vol. 9, 96.3

460 “The true fasting which should be recommended to all, is abstinence from 461 every stimulating kind of food, and the proper use of wholesome, simple food, 462 which God has provided in abundance.” Counsels on Diet and Foods, 90.

463 “All the fasting in the world will not take the place of simple trust in the word 464 of God. “Ask,” He says, “and ye shall receive.” ... You are not called upon to 465 fast forty days. The Lord bore that fast for you in the wilderness of temptation.
466 There would be no virtue in such a fast; but there is virtue in the blood of 467 Christ.” Counsels on Diet and Foods, 189.

468

469 7. Prayers Resisting Satan

470 James 4:7 “Resist the devil....”

471 Col. 1:13 “He has delivered us....”

472 1John 3:8 “...that He might destroy the works of the devil....”

473 Rom. 16:20 “...will crush Satan under your feet....”

474 “The prayer of faith is the great strength of the Christian, and will assuredly 475 prevail against Satan. This is why he insinuates that we have no need of 476 prayer. The name of Jesus, our Advocate, he detests; and when we earnestly 477 come to Him for help, Satan's host is alarmed. It serves his purpose well if we 478 neglect the exercise of prayer, for then his lying wonders are more readily 479 received.” Testimonies, Vol. 1, p. 296.

480 “Pray much. Prayer is the life of the soul. The prayer of faith is the weapon by 481 which we may successfully resist every assault of the enemy.” Signs of the 482 Times, August 24, 1904 par. 9.

483 “...lay hold upon God's word, and upon all the helpful agencies He has 484 appointed. Thus your faith will strengthen, and will bring to your aid the 485 power of heaven. The obstacles that are piled by Satan across your path, 486 though apparently as insurmountable as the eternal hills, shall disappear 487 before the demand of faith. "Nothing shall be impossible unto you." Desire of 488 Ages, 431.3

489

490 Concluding Thoughts

491 We Must Pray

492 “A prayerless house, a house where Christ is not entreated to come in, there
493 the prince of darkness abides.” Signs of the Times, December 12, 1878 Par. 11

494 “Prayer is the Christian's life. There is a remedy for the sin-sick soul, and that 495 remedy is in Jesus. Precious Saviour! his grace is sufficient for the weakest, 496 and the strongest must have his help or perish. A Christian has victory over 497 his passions and besetments. I would not dishonor my Master so much as to 498 admit that a careless, trifling, prayerless person is a Christian. It is the 499 privilege of the Christian to enjoy the deep movings of the Spirit of God. A 500 sweet, heavenly peace will pervade his mind. He will love to meditate upon 501 God and Heaven, and to feast upon the glorious promises of the written 502 word.” Signs of the Times, November 18, 1886 Par. 6

503

504 Confide, Then Trust

505 Philippians 4:6 “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and 506 supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. 7
507 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts
508 and minds through Christ Jesus.”

509 “We may come to Jesus as to a friend, and in the most simple-hearted, definite 510 manner tell him all our worries, perplexities, and trials, and he will carry our 511 burdens for us. When our minds and our lives get tangled, we may take them 512 to One who knows just how to untangle them. But after we have asked God to 513 do this work for us, let us rest it with him. Here is where so many fail. They 514 tell the Lord all their troubles, and then go on worrying just the same. They 515 pray about their cares and sins, but do not cast off their cares nor cease to sin.
516 Jesus invites us to cast all our cares upon him, for he cares for us; then let us
517 leave them with him, and receive his peace and rest into our hearts.” Review
