INTRODUCTION

1                   “The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord...”
2

3 Learning how to determine God’s will is one of the more important lessons in 4 obtaining answers to prayer and knowing God’s blessings in the Christian life.
5 The following Scriptures and thoughts should be helpful in seeking 6 to understand this subject.
7

8 9                   GOD’S WILL AND PRAYER

11 1 John 5:14,15 “And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask 12 any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he hear us, 13 whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of 14 him.”

16 1 John 3:22 “And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his 17 commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.”

19 “He makes it plain that our asking must be according to God's will; we must 20 ask for the things that He has promised, and whatever we receive must be used 21 in doing His will. The conditions met, the promise is unequivocal.” Education, 22 p. 257.7

24 “When we pray for earthly blessings, the answer to our prayer may be 25 delayed, or God may give us something other than we ask, but not so when we 26 ask for deliverance from sin. It is His will to cleanse us from sin, to make us
27 His children, and to enable us to live a holy life.” Desire of Ages, p. 266.2

29 30                   THE BIBLE AND KNOWING GOD’S WILL

31
32 1. God wants His will to be perfectly accomplished in our lives:
33

34                   Colossians 4:12 “That ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will 35 of God.”

2. Jesus always sought to do His Father's will:

John 4:34 "My meat is to do the will of Him who sent me."

John 5:30 "I seek not my own will, but the will of Him who sent me."

3. God is willing to give wisdom:

James 1:5 "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him."

Psalm 32: 8: "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go."

4. Accepting God's direction brings true and enduring happiness.

Prov. 16:20 "He who heeds the word wisely will find good, and whoever trusts in the LORD, happy is he."

John 13:17 "If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them."

Ps. 34:8 "Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the man who trusts in Him!"

Ps. 119:1,2 "Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD! Blessed are those who keep His testimonies, who seek Him with the whole heart!"

Ps. 128:1 "Blessed is every one who fears the LORD, who walks in His ways."

Rev. 22:14 "Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city."

5. We must be completely open to whatever God wants. To do so, it is best to have no will of our own on the matter:

Luke 9:23 "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me."

6. God will never lead contrary to what is taught in the Bible:

Isaiah 8:20: "To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."

83 7. God will providentially direct us by opening and closing doors:

85 Proverbs 3:6: “In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will 86 direct your paths.”

87

88 8. We may not understand all the steps, but God will both prepare and direct 89 us for whatever He has in mind—like He did for Daniel who didn't always 90 understand what was going on:

91

92 2 Sam. 22:33 “God is my strength and power, and He makes my way 93 perfect.”

94

95 Heb. 13:20-21 “Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord
96 Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood
97 of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you complete in every good work
98 to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing in His sight, through 99 Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.”

100

101 9. When God is leading, His peace will rule in our hearts. Lack of peace is an 102 important indicator that what we are pursuing may not be God's will, or that it
103 is not yet God's time:

104

105 Col. 3:15: “And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also 106 you were called in one body; and be thankful.”

107

108 10. It is often wise to share God's leadings with a mature and surrendered
109 Christian, to ascertain if we are correctly understanding God's leading:

110

111 Proverbs 11:14 “In the multitude of counselors there is safety.”

112

113 11. As God leads us forward He often only shows us one step at a time.

114

115 Isa. 30:21 “Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, ‘This is the 116 way, walk in it, whenever you turn to the right hand whenever you turn

118

119 12. Confirmation—NOT direction—is sometimes gained in seeking a fleece.

120

121 “Look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew
122 on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that 123 You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.” Judges 6:37

124

OTHER QUOTATIONS

126

128 God Reveals His Will Three Ways

129 “There are three ways in which the Lord reveals His will to us, to guide us, 130 and to fit us to guide others. How may we know His voice from that of a 131 stranger? How shall we distinguish it from the voice of a false shepherd? God 132 reveals His will to us in His word, the Holy Scriptures. His voice is also 133 revealed in His providential workings; and it will be recognized if we do not 134 separate our souls from Him by walking in our own ways, doing according to 135 our own wills, and following the promptings of an unsanctified heart, until the 136 senses have become so confused that eternal things are not discerned, and the 137 voice of Satan is so disguised that it is accepted as the voice of God.

138

139 Another way in which God’s voice is heard is through the appeals of His Holy 140 Spirit, making impressions upon the heart, which will be wrought out in the 141 character. If you are in doubt upon any subject you must first consult the 142 Scriptures. If you have truly begun the life of faith you have given yourself to 143 the Lord to be wholly His, and He has taken you to mold and fashion 144 according to His purpose, that you may be a vessel unto honor. You should 145 have an earnest desire to be pliable in His hands and to follow whithersoever 146 He may lead you. You are then trusting Him to work out His designs, while at 147 the same time you are co-operating with Him by working out your own
148 salvation with fear and trembling. You, my brother, will find difficulty here
149 because you have not yet learned by experience to know the voice of the Good 150 Shepherd, and this places you in doubt and peril. You ought to be able to 151 distinguish His voice.”—Testimonies Vol. 5, p. 512.1,2

152

153 You Must Trust God

154 “Many who profess to be Christ’s followers have an anxious, troubled heart, 155 because they are afraid to trust themselves with God. They do not make a
156 complete surrender to Him; for they shrink from the consequences that such a 157 surrender may involve. Unless they do make this surrender, they cannot 158 find peace.... Worry is blind, and cannot discern the future; but Jesus sees 159 the end from the beginning. In every difficulty He has His way prepared 160 to bring relief. ‘No good thing will He withhold from them that 161 walk uprightly.’ Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us 162 of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the 163 service of God supreme, will find perplexities vanish, and a plain path before
164 their feet.”—Ministry of Healing, pp 480, 481

165

166 “Let students seek heavenly direction much more than they have 167 done hitherto, and let them make no move, even though it be advised by 168 their teachers, unless they have most humbly sought wisdom from God, and 169 have received his guidance and counsel.”—Special Testimonies on Education, 170 p. 125

172 “Too many, in planning for a brilliant future, make an utter failure. Let 173 God plan for you. As a little child, trust to the guidance of Him who will 174 “keep the feet of His saints.” God never leads His children otherwise than 175 they would choose to be led, if they could see the end from the beginning, 176 and discern the glory of the purpose which they are fulfilling as 177 coworkers with Him.”—Ministry of Healing, p 479

178

179 “Worry is blind, and cannot discern the future, but Jesus sees the end from the 180 beginning. In every difficulty He has His way prepared to bring relief. Our 181 heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us, of which we know
182 nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service and honor 183 of God supreme will find perplexities vanish, and a plain path before their 184 feet.” Desire of Ages, p 330

185

186 “He gives “to every man his work.” Each has his place in the eternal plan of 187 heaven. Each is to work in co-operation with Christ for the salvation of souls.
188 Not more surely is the place prepared for us in the heavenly mansions than is 189 the special place designated on earth where we are to work for God.”—Christ
190 Object Lessons, p. 326

192 “As Christians, we ought not to engage in any employment upon which we 193 cannot conscientiously ask the blessing of the Lord.”—Testimonies, Vol. 4, p.
194 629.1

196 “I have been surprised at being asked by physicians if I did not think it would 197 be more pleasing to God for them to give up their medical practice and enter
198 the ministry. I am prepared to answer such an inquirer: If you are a Christian 199 and a competent physician, you are qualified to do tenfold more good as a 200 missionary for God than if you were to go forth merely as a preacher of the 201 word.”—Counsels on Health, p. 503.3

202

203 “To our people I will say, Let none be led from the sound, sensible principles
204 that God has laid down for the guidance of His people, to depend for direction
205 on any such device as the tossing up of a coin. Such a course is well pleasing 206 to the enemy of souls; for he works to control the coin, and through its agency
207 works out his plans. Let none be so easily deceived as to place confidence in 208 any such tests. Let none belittle their experience by resorting to cheap devices 209 for direction in important matters connected with the work of God.”—Selected
210 Messages, Vol. 2, p. 326.

211

212 I have no faith in casting lots. We have in the Bible a plain "Thus saith the 213 Lord" in regard to all church duties. . . . Read your Bibles with much prayer.
214 Do not try to humble others, but humble yourselves before God, and deal 215 gently with one another. To cast lots for the officers of the church is not in 216 God's order (Letter 37, 1900).”—SDA Bible Commentary, Vol. 6, p. 1054

217

218 “Each morning consecrate yourselves and your children to God for that day.

219 Make no calculation for months or years; these are not yours. One brief day is 220 given you. As if it were your last on earth, work during its hours for the 221 Master. Lay all your plans before God, to be carried out or given up, as His 222 providence shall indicate. Accept His plans instead of your own, even though
223 their acceptance requires the abandonment of cherished projects. Thus the life 224 will be molded more and more after the divine example; and ‘the peace of 225 God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds
226 through Christ Jesus.’” —Counsels to the Church, p. 152.6

227
228 "All true obedience comes from the heart. It was heart work with Christ. And 229 if we consent, He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so
230 blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will, that when obeying 231 Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses. The will, refined and 232 sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service. When we know
233 God as it is our privilege to know Him, our life will be a life of continual 234 obedience. Through an appreciation of the character of Christ, through 235 communion with God, sin will become hateful to us. As Christ lived the law in 236 humanity, so we may do if we will take hold of the Strong for strength. But we 237 are not to place the responsibility of our duty upon others, and wait for them to 238 tell us what to do. We cannot depend for counsel upon humanity. The Lord 239 will teach us our duty just as willingly as He will teach somebody else. If we 240 come to Him in faith, He will speak His mysteries to us personally. Our hearts
241 will often burn within us as One draws nigh to commune with us as He did
242 with Enoch. Those who decide to do nothing in any line that will displease 243 God, will know, after presenting their case before Him, just what course to 244 pursue. And they will receive not only wisdom, but strength. Power for 245 obedience, for service, will be imparted to them, as Christ has promised.
246 Whatever was given to Christ--the "all things" to supply the need of fallen 247 men--was given to Him as the head and representative of humanity. And 248 'whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments, 249 and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.'" 1 John 3:22."—Desire of 250 Ages, p. 668

251
252 “Those who turn away from the light which God has given, or who neglect to 253 seek it when it is within their reach, are left in darkness. But the Saviour 254 declares: "He that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the 255 light of life." John 8:12. Whoever is with singleness of purpose seeking to do 256 God's will, earnestly heeding the light already given, will receive greater light;
257 to that soul some star of heavenly radiance will be sent to guide him into all
258 truth.”—Great Controversy, p. 312.3

259
260 “...like the stars in the vast circuit of their appointed path, God’s purposes
261 know no haste and no delay.”—A Call To Stand Apart, p. 5.2

262
263 Obeying God Regarding Employment Contracts

264 “Human beings belong to the Lord, body, soul, and spirit, and they are to be 265 guided and controlled by him. He has bought us. We are under obligation to

266 be laborers together with him. No one should bind himself to serve for a 267 certain number of years in any institution.

268

269 I know that some have thought it advisable for the workers in our sanitariums
270 to sign certain contracts. But I know also that it is not in accordance with 271 God's plan for the workers to sign these contracts. They are pledged to God, 272 and if he moves upon them to take the message to a certain place, shall they be 273 bound by a pledge that hinders them from going? Never, never, We are not 274 our own, and we are not to bind ourselves to human beings by signing
275 contracts to do this or that. We are to work under our Master, Christ Jesus, 276 looking to him for directions. We are to pray and work and believe, following
277 always the course that he marks out."—Spaulding Magan Collection, p. 307.4

278

279 Be Exact In Following Divine Arrangements With Tithe

280 "You may say, I have not large means and can do but little with the little I 281 have. All the Lord asks of you is to be a faithful steward, to render to God a 282 tenth of all your increase without stopping to measure the matter to see how 283 you are coming out. You have but little means, render back to him the portion 284 belonging to him; for it is not yours. It is a serious matter to rob God. Thus 285 you deprive yourself of the blessing he has promised to bestow if you exercise 286 faithful stewardship. If you have been untrue to God, if you show that you will 287 not do according to the agreement he has made with you, will he bless you 288 with facilities of obtaining more means? You keep yourself under 289 condemnation as unfaithful stewards by working contrary to a "Thus saith the 290 Lord." You deprive the treasury of God of your proportion of his agreement 291 with you, because you choose to walk in the light of the sparks of your own 292 kindling. In your finite wisdom, you think you are making better terms with 293 yourself than God has made with you. How then, if you are unfaithful steward
294 with the least, can the Lord entrust to you larger responsibilities?

295

296 God wants all his stewards to be exact in following divine arrangements. They 297 are not to offset the Lord's plans with some deed of charity, some gift, or some 298 offering, done or given when and how, the human agents, shall see fit. God 299 has made his plan known, and all who co-operate with him will carry out his 300 plan, instead of daring to attempt to improve on it, by their own arrangements.
301 Those who honor a "Thus saith the Lord," who accept exactly what the Lord
302 has devised, will be according to God's plan. God will honor them, and work 303 in their behalf: For we have his pledged word that he will open the windows of 304 heaven and pour us out a blessing, such as there will not be room enough to 305 receive.

306

307 It is a very poor policy for men to seek to improve on God's plan, and invent a 308 makeshift, averaging up their good impulses in this and that instance, and 309 offsetting them against all that is required of God. God calls upon you to give 310 every jot of influence to his own arrangement and ordinances. We are to strike
311 true and faithful figures in tithing and then say to the Lord, I have done as thou 312 hast commanded me. If you will honor me by trusting me with thy goods to 313 trade upon, I will be thy faithful steward, doing all in my power to bring meat

314 to thy house, and I will seek to instruct others how to work in the same
315 lines.”—Kress Collection, p. 156.1,2

316

317 Tips on Selecting a Marriage Partner

318 “If men and women are in the habit of praying twice a day before 319 they contemplate marriage, they should pray four times a day when such 320 a step is anticipated. Marriage is something that will influence and affect your 321 life, both in this world and in the world to come. A sincere Christian will not 322 advance his plans in this direction without the knowledge that God approves 323 his course. He will not want to choose for himself, but will feel that God must 324 choose for him. We are not to please ourselves, for Christ pleased not Himself.
325 I would not be understood to mean that anyone is to marry one whom he does 326 not love. This would be sin. But fancy and the emotional nature must not be 327 allowed to lead on to ruin. God requires the whole heart, the supreme 328 affections.”—Messages to Young People, p. 460

329

330 The Principle of Personal Responsibility

331 "In all our dealings with one another, God desires us carefully to guard the 332 principle of personal responsibility to and dependence upon Him."—*Loma
333 Linda Messages*, p. 258.1

334

335 “If we are to be co-laborers with God, we must hold direct communion with 336 Him: we must ask His guidance in everything we undertake. We cannot 337 commit to another the explanation, or ask them to direct us. But how few 338 know what it is to hold intercourse with God. How readily some place the 339 responsibility of their duty on others, and ask them to tell them what to do. We 340 say to all such, You must know your duty from God. Many have depended on 341 their fellow-men until they have no individual experience. They are towed 342 along as a barge by a steamer.

343 All must see and understand their duty for themselves, after seeking wisdom
344 from God. He is the only one to whom you may commit your soul for safe-
345 keeping. If you come to Him in faith, he will speak His mysteries to you
346 personally. You may sit together in heavenly places with Christ. We may 347 individually understand God’s will; we may know for ourselves what He 348 would have us do; for He will direct us if we will consent to be consecrated 349 and humble in heart before him. Our hearts will oft burn within us as One 350 draws nigh to commune with us as He did with Enoch. “Who is this that 351 darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge.” We need Him who is the 352 true light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world.”—*Manuscript
353 Releases*, Vol. 6, p. 381.,23

354

355 "God desires to bring men into direct relation with Himself. In all His dealing 356 with human beings, He recognizes the principles of personal responsibility. He 357 seeks to encourage a sense of personal dependence, and to increase the need of 358 personal guidance. His gifts are committed to men as individuals. Every man 359 has been made a steward of sacred trusts; each is to discharge his trust,

360 according to the direction of the Giver; and by each an account of his 361 stewardship must be rendered to God.”—Loma Linda Messages, p. 257.5
362

363 “One great object in the mission of Christ was to establish in every believer a 364 sense of the guiding and controlling power of God. This lesson is to be 365 repeated again and again. No greater injury can be done to our churches than 366 for members to be taught to look to their fellowmen for guidance. And there is 367 no man so humble in heart and so respectful of his brethren that he can safely
368 take upon himself this work.”—Loma Linda Messages, p. 212
369

370 “Never should a worker encourage one who is in need of instruction and help 371 to go first to human agencies for an understanding of his duty. It is our 372 privilege as laborers to pray together and to counsel together; but we are 373 individually to seek God to know what he would have us do. When the Lord 374 impresses the mind of one of his servants that he is to go to a certain place to 375 labor, that man is not under obligation to go to a human being to know if it is 376 right for him to do this. It is a wrong education to teach our people to lean on 377 human aids, instead of going to the Lord in prayer. The enemy of souls has 378 been the instigator of this, that minds might become obscured. The people are 379 not to be instructed differently. God's people are to meet together in counsel, 380 but no leader or worker is to take the position that God's children are to make 381 no move until he is first consulted. Those who bear responsibilities in the 382 work are to co-operate with heavenly angels in teaching men and women to 383 look to God as the source of their strength.”—Spaulding and Magan
384 Collection, p. 415
385

386 “God would have you united in pleasant cords of companionship. As the 387 Lord's workmen, you are to open your plans one to another. These plans must 388 be carefully and prayerfully considered, for the Lord will leave those who do 389 not do this to stumble in their own supposed wisdom and superior greatness.
390 [John 15:16, 17, quoted.]

391 One person must not suppose that his wisdom is beyond making any mistake.
392 God would have the greatest cherish that humility that will lead him to be the 393 servant of all if duty thus orders it.

394 But while you are to love as brethren, and think soul to soul, heart to heart, life 395 to life, you are individually to lean your whole weight on God. He will be in 396 your support. He is not pleased when you depend on each other for light and 397 wisdom and direction. The Lord must be our wisdom. Individually we must 398 know that He is our sanctification and our redemption. To Him we may look,
399 in Him we may trust. He will be to us a present help in every time of need.”—
400 Manuscript Releases, Vol. 21, p. 337
401

402 “In the place of bearing your perplexities to a brother or a minister, take them 403 to the Lord in prayer. Do not place the minister where God should be. The 404 minister of Christ is like other men. True, he bears sacred responsibilities, but 405 he is not infallible. He is compassed with infirmity, and needs grace and 406 divine enlightenment. He needs the heavenly unction, in order to do his work

407 with success. Those who know how to pray, who know what are the 408 invitations of the gospel of Christ, show dishonor to God when they lay their 409 burdens upon finite men. It is always right to counsel together; it is right to 410 converse together; it is right to make the difficulties that present themselves in 411 any enterprise plain before your brethren and your ministers. But do not 412 depend upon man for wisdom. Seek God for the wisdom that comes from 413 above. Ask your fellow laborers to pray with you; and the Lord will fulfill his 414 word, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the 415 midst." —Youth Instructor, February 15, 1900

417 We Must Accept His Direction

418 "It is in neglecting to follow the exact directions of the word of God that many 419 err. They turn away from God's plans, to follow their own ideas. Christ 420 himself declared, "The Son of Man can do nothing of himself, but what he 421 seeth the Father do; for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son 422 likewise." So utterly was he emptied of self that he made no plans for himself.
423 He accepted God's plan for him, and day by day the Father unfolded his plans.
424 If Jesus was so wholly dependent, declaring, "I do nothing of myself," how 425 much more should the human agents depend upon God for constant 426 instruction, so that their lives might be the simple working out of God's will.
427 Oh, that failing, erring mortals would be content to seek wisdom from God, 428 and be entirely submissive in working out his directions, in exemplifying his 429 character! If ever mortals needed to send to heaven an earnest cry, "Lord, 430 show me thy way; teach me the way of the Lord," it is now. Only those will 431 have a fitness for the mansions above who give to God full and implicit 432 obedience. God knows that we would not appreciate his rarest gifts if we were 433 not perfectly submissive to his will."—Signs of the Times, November 21, 1892
434 par. 2

435

436 "We must not study to have our own way, but God's way and God's will. . . .
437 Human beings suffer much because they step out of the path that God has 438 chosen for them to follow. They walk in the sparks of the fire they themselves 439 have kindled, and the sure result is affliction, unrest, and sorrow, which they 440 might have avoided if they had submitted their will to God. . . . Whatever path
441 God chooses for us, whatever way He ordains for our feet, that is the only path 442 of safety. . . . With the eye of faith, with childlike submission as obedient 443 children, we must look to God, to follow His guidance, and difficulties will 444 clear away. The promise is, "I will instruct thee and teach thee."—Sons and 445 Daughters of God, p. 175.5

446

447 "When the students in our schools shall learn to like God's will, they will find 448 it comparatively easy to do it."—Fundamentals of Christian Education, p.
449 293.2

451 "God's will is to be diligently and conscientiously studied, and it must be 452 made paramount in all the affairs of life. The laws which every human agent is 453 to obey flow from the heart of infinite love."—Selected Messages, Vol. 2, p.

456 “All who have determined to serve God will seek to know and to do his will,
457 at whatever cost to themselves. The true servants of God will be made 458 manifest by their willing obedience to all the commandments of their Master.
459 They will not be murmuring and finding fault with the law, but will declare by 460 word and action, "This is the love of God, that we keep his commandments;
461 and his commandments are not grievous." In obeying the law, they are doing 462 that which is well-pleasing in the sight of Heaven, and all the promises of the 463 word of God are pledged to the support of the faithful and obedient. They may 464 hope in his mercy, build on his immutable counsels, obtain the desires of their 465 hearts, because their wills are placed on the side of God's will. It is their meat 466 to do the will of God and to finish his work. The gates of the eternal city shall 467 open for the nation that has kept the truth. The servants of God shall eat of the 468 tree of life, and enjoy the unsearchable riches of eternity.”—Signs of the
469 Times, January 6, 1888 par 5

471 We Must Accept God's Training Experiences

472 “Christ has given to every man his work, and we are to acknowledge the 473 wisdom of the plan He has made for us by a hearty cooperation with Him. It is 474 in a life of service only that true happiness is found. He who lives a useless, 475 selfish life is miserable. He is dissatisfied with himself and with everyone else.
476 True, unselfish, consecrated workers gladly use their highest gifts in the 477 lowliest service. They realize that true service means to see and to perform the 478 duties that God points out.

479 There are many who are not satisfied with the work that God has given them.
480 They are not satisfied to serve Him pleasantly in the place that He has marked 481 out for them, or to do uncomplainingly the work that He has placed in their 482 hands.

483 It is right for us to be dissatisfied with the way in which we perform duty, but 484 we are not to be dissatisfied with the duty itself, because we would rather do
485 something else. In His providence God places before human beings service 486 that will be as medicine to their diseased minds. Thus He seeks to lead them to 487 put aside the selfish preferences which, if cherished, would disqualify them for 488 the work He has for them. If they accept and perform this service, their minds
489 will be cured. But if they refuse it, they will be left at strife with themselves 490 and with others.

491 The Lord disciplines His workers, so that they will be prepared to fill the 492 places appointed them. He desires to mold their minds in accordance with His 493 will. For this purpose He brings to them test and trial. Some He places where 494 relaxed discipline and over-indulgence will not become their snare, where they 495 are taught to appreciate the value of time, and to make the best and wisest use 496 of it.

497 There are some who desire to be a ruling power, and who need the 498 sanctification of submission. God brings about a change in their lives, and 499 perhaps places before them duties that they would not choose. If they are 500 willing to be guided by Him, He will give them grace and strength to perform

501 the objectionable duties in a spirit of submission and helpfulness. They are 502 being qualified to fill places where their disciplined abilities will make them 503 of the greatest service.

504 Some God trains by bringing to them disappointment and apparent failure. It is 505 His purpose that they shall learn to master difficulty. He inspires them with a 506 determination to make every apparent failure prove a success.

507 Often men pray and weep because of the perplexities and obstacles that 508 confront them. But if they will hold the beginning of their confidence steadfast 509 unto the end, He will make their way clear. Success will come to them as they 510 struggle against apparently insurmountable difficulties; and with success will 511 come the greatest joy.

512 Many are ignorant of how to work for God, not because they need to be 513 ignorant, but because they are not willing to submit to His training process.
514 Moab is spoken of as a failure because, the Word declares, he "hath been at 515 ease from his youth, . . . and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, 516 therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed." (Jeremiah 517 48:11.)

518 Thus it is with those whose hereditary and cultivated tendencies to wrong are 519 not purged from them. Their hearts are not cleansed from defilement. They 520 were given opportunity to do a work for God, but this work they did not 521 choose to do, because they wished to carry out their own plans.

522 The Christian is to be prepared for the doing of a work that reveals kindness, 523 forbearance, longsuffering, gentleness, patience. The cultivation of these 524 precious gifts is to come into the discipline-life of the Christian, that when 525 called to service by the Master, he may be ready to exercise the energies of 526 heart and mind in helping and blessing those who are ready to die.—Ms 79,
527 1903, pp. 1-3. ("How God Trains His Workers," August 4, 1903.)—
